I Only Wanted Sex

cry baby, cry baby, cry baby, cry baby, cry

the hardest part of goodbye the hardest part of all i say those words to you now and i watch you crawl back to me where is your dignity oh where is your dignity

i make you promises and i break them all apart i'm lying like a sidewalk a typical loves me, loves me not

i never really loved you
i never loved you back
i never even liked you
sex

cry baby, cry baby, cry baby, cry baby

is moving all your stuff hey what's the name of that one guy i sure could use his pick up truck i surely could use his pick up truck

i only wanted
i only wanted sex
