

Arden Jann, Will You Remember Me

Arden Jann

Miscellaneous

Will You Remember Me

Will you remember me when I'm gone

Will you remember me at all

I tried to be kind, I tried to be good.

Will you remember me

God only knows why we try and fail

Is this heaven on earth or the fires of hell

I tried to be honest, it's hard not to lie

Will you remember me after I die

Will you remember me

Will you remember me

I've got a junkie heart, in a cage of bone

I'm a scientific wonder, a sober son

I was born blue-blooded

So I've never made a cent on my own

I don't need to tell you that I'm afraid

'Cause I'll be paying for all the mistakes I've made

I tried to be thoughtful, it's hard not to be blind

Will you remember me after I'm gone

Will you remember me

Will you remember me

Will you remember me

Will you remember me

Will you remember me
