

Area 7, Skin Deep

An average guy, leading an average life
He tried his very best, to always do what's right
Was he lookin' for something to do?
Did he have something to say?
Or was he just trying - to run away?
Reality... Is only skin deep
He tried so hard not to act like a white sheep
He wonders why everybody thinks he seems so strange...
Well it really doesn't matter when reality is only skin deep
An accident, changed the course of his life
His whole world had changed in a single night
He tried his best to hide his face from the world
He tried to get away from it all
But no one seemed to care about him
Nobody cared at all...
Reality... Is only skin deep
He tried so hard not to act like a white sheep
He wonders why everybody thinks he seems so strange...
Well it really doesn't matter when reality is only skin deep
Right from the start his way of life was doomed
He kept his single life, locked in his single room
Nobody ever knew about it... they never knew there was something wrong
His plastic world, could never last too long...
Reality... Is only skin deep
He tried so hard not to act like a white sheep
He wonders why everybody thinks he seems so strange...
Well it really doesn't matter when reality is only skin deep
I said it really doesn't matter when reality is only skin deep
Yeah it really doesn't matter when reality is only skin deep
