Arghoslent, The Negress

Raise us to opulence and power We take this bundle of thorns

Follow us to post-modern victory
The kingdom of the golden chariot

Tainted woman give your silver The fine for civil disorder Fornication of useless eunuchs Costly act of bestiality

Justify the emerald fortress
Across the exosphere's crown
The negress responds to a tribal call
A mongrel cesspool invites her in Poor bastards breathing the fumes of genocide
As the chambers of cleansing ignite
Divine children sprinkle their ashes
Supreme oasis has been achieved
