

Ari Koivunen, Don't Try To Break Me

Gloomy monday night try to find my way
I hear a voice, have a choice, I decide to stay
There's no one in my sight, just an open door
I cross the street, I feel the heat, leading me once more refrão
Oooh it's hotter than in hell out here
You keep whispering in my ear
Nooo they start to ring a bell
Don't try to break me (2x)
I've been down that road before, seen how eager my eyes are thorn
I won't fall around no more lies are hidden in the core
In the smoky scene fire's burning white
Pounding noise, I hear a voice, saying this is right
The spere is like a beam, from across the cave
Your eyes are red, I feel afraid of your darkest day
refrão
I've been down that road before, seen how eager my eyes are thorn
I won't fall around no more lies are hidden in the core
I went to take controll
I turn away and save my eyes
So, I'm not gonna takes this anymore, no
No, no no!
Yeah!
Don't try to break me! (2x)
I've been down that road before, seen how eager my eyes are thorn
I won't fall around no more lies are hidden in the core (ooh yeah)
Ooh yeah yeah yeah
Don't break me
Yeah yeah yeah yeah!
