

Ari Koivunen, Father

Now I've got myself together
The things you do have made me sad
Ties that should last forever
Break loose in front of all that's bad
No father of mine (2x)
My heart feels like burning
Standing in front of all you do
No, I won't be returning
Nothing could bring me back to you
No father of mine (3x)
Why justify
All your lies
Something you always deny
You're no good
Fatherhood
That is dead and gone
No father of mine (2x)
Why justify
All your lies
Something you always deny
You're no good
Fatherhood
That is dead and gone
(2x)
