Ari Koivunen, Father

Now I've got myself together The things you do have made me sad Ties that should last forever Break loose in front of all that's bad No father of mine (2x) My heart feels like burning Standing in front of all you do No, I won't be returning Nothing could bring me back to you No father of mine (3x)Why justify All your lies Something you always deny You're no good Fatherhood That is dead and gone No father of mine (2x) Why justify All your lies Something you always deny You're no good Fatherhood That is dead and gone (2x)
