

Ari Koivunen, Fuel For The Fire

I'm burning slow on a pale blue flame
I'm so cold, consumed and tame
My heart is weak like a flickering light
But I won't give in, I won't lose this fight tonight
I'm here all alone beneath the black sky
I depend on you, my flame will never die
The wind cries a whisper, calling out my name
Show me the way through the blizzard and rain
refrão:
My blood flows strong now
I'm ready for the show
And now it's time to go
refrão 2:
You're fuel for the fire
Pour it down on me
Make flames burn higher
I can feel the heat
You set my soul alive
A beacon in the dark, a guide along my way
Your shine keeps me from going astray
My pulse is rising and it's pounding in my head
Your light is strength where ever I tread
refrão
refrão 2
Close your eyes
And take my hand
All you need is faith
Feel the fire
Soothe the pain
With you I will bear the strain
