

Ari Koivunen, Our Beast

I've tried to see things your way
You always hide more things inside
Guns to blow me away
I'm at the edge of all things gone unreal
Taking punches that I just can't feel Can't feel a thing
refrão
War forever raging on Before all the flags are torn Feed our beast of war
Forever raging on
Oh how did we end up here
Where a tongue's blade now
Thought my heart somehow
And every tear turns red with hate and fear
I'm at the edge of all things gone unreal
Rolling with punches that I just can't feel
refrão
Over the edge of all things gone unreal
All over me the wounds I just can't feel
But I wish I could refrão
