

Ari Koivunen, Unscarred Within

From the womb to the grave
Is a short trip after all
So it better be a good one
Unlike you
I won't just sit around and waste my life
No, I'm going for the home run
Each night and day
I wonder what more lies up ahead
Destined to win
I reach for the world to fulfill my desires
Unscarred within
I keep reaching higher and higher
Determined to never be still
Blood and sweat
(But never tears!)
Mark the road that I have walked
Never taking a sidestep
All the filth
That buries and consumes our precious world
Never weakened my mindset
Each night and day
I wonder what more lies up ahead
Destined to win
I reach for the world to fulfill my desires
Unscarred within
I keep reaching higher and higher
Determined to never be still
