

Arid, Me And My Melody

Oh Lord, it's pulling me down
Oh darling, how weak this crown
Do you fail to understand
What is heartily now
What's in your hands
Oh creature, oh love, strained now
'till we get enough
I ain't afraid no more
As they batter down the door
Who you are and what you say
You've built it up some other way
Isn't that crime, these tears divine
Love you tear me up sometimes and
Oh darling, you and me
Stuck on time as we see
The outside world fade away
'till the dark
The dark of the day
And who you are and what you say
What does it mean now anyway
Trow off your crown
Tread me down
Oh baby, stop all feelings now
And we're worlds apart
Helpless as we are
You and I walk on by
Our little love will die
Still walking the bridge to God
Thinking things
That I can not relate this to
What you say
Bricks are falling down this day
Oh darling, the weeks to come ain't nothing
But the sound of your drum
You can stay or walk away
As I , I long to say
Who you are and what you say
Babe, we've lost now anyway
Isn't that a crime, these tears divine
A river 'round your waist sometimes
Stuck in tears as we've gone too far
Babe, you've built a wall
That's hard getting through
Getting through to you
Who you are and what you say
Held down anyway
Darling, fear brought us here
Ooh, hey, hold hands
She don't want me tied
Her hand still stuck in mine
Baby, I long to see
Hey, you, my tears won't mend
Until the end
