

Ariel Pink, Howling At The Moon

(Bully, hey hey)

You know now,
Lately I've been thinking about
All those days gone by
How I was just a little boy

And I remember being as defensive
As a cripple,
All those other kids pushing me around
I'd say nothing, I'd just stand there
And I'd dream my song

It's a song of pain
It's called "Howling at the Moon";

Wish upon a star that's bright
Count on your dreams filling the night
As comets race across the moon
You see that love is coming soon
Howling at the moon
(Howling at the moon (x2))

Uh, feel the love now
Love is power
And the power's strong, uh
Can you feel it, feel it babe

Love is on the way home (yeah) (x2)
On the way
Love is on the way home (x2)

Now hit me, darling
Now hold it back, it back
Let's sing it together, babe
Hurry, hurry

Love is on the way home (x3)
On the way home (x2)
Love is on the way home

Hit me twice, baby
Uh, yeah

Love is on the way home (love is) (x4)
Oh yeah
Love is on the way home, ah

Oh, can you feel the love
And love is power
And the power's strong
Can you feel it, feel it baby

You feeling it
Just waiting there to
For you to find it
Just can't find it

Wish upon a star that's bright
Count on your dreams filling the night
As comets race across the moon
You can see love coming soon
