

Ariel Pink, The Ballad Of Bobby Pyn

i hate, i hate

open wide

spent too much time
looking for the right words

here i come, open wide
yeah, i'll mess up your mind

listen to me, bully listen to me that-

i know everything about hate
i know everything

i don't know where to go
should you follow me, no

hate!

..., no more debates

i'll mess up your mind

pull yourself, burn welt, up at the king

boy is the king
but you can't come within hey, h-hey

... on my lips
fingers, give me a kiss

got peels on my lips figures give me a kiss

now give me a kiss!

don't know
don't know about love
i just don't know
about love
just don't know
just don't-

die, die, dying dead
they were led!

6:10but no i recommend it

hate!

hate.. i know everything.. about hate i.. just don't know about hate

about hate i
about hate
