

Ariel Pink, The Doldrums

i'm living with myself today with barely anything to say i'm living with my problems and can't do a thing about them i'm living in the doldrums cuz i'm not you
cuz you don't love me like i love you

the doldrums
the doldrums

i'm leaving on a train today yeah that's what i'd like to say but i'm staying in my room today and it's ooh so plain
and i'm living it for you too no you can go do anything cuz i love you

the doldrums

making me ill from being so still i'm living with my self these days
i'm living with my problems and can't do a thing about them

i'm just a killer
who can't kill anything
