

Ariel Pink, The Drummer

Contrary to the law of the land
Our little drummer, he started a band
He wrote a beat with the tongue in his teeth
Keeping time without tapping his feet

Here comes the drummer, thunder 'n' summer
Here comes the drummer, drummer of love

Now the kicks made the chick wanna dance
I heard the drummer tried his hand at romance
He played it cool as he wiped off his sweat
That terrible heat fails not to get her wet

Here comes the drummer, another number Here comes the drummer, can't get enough of your love, mmm, oh yeah, hey
of your love, mmm, oh yeah, hey
A drummer for love, uh, oh yeah, hey now
Drumming for love, mmhmm, aaow!

The drummer came with a kit in his trap
He broke his sticks so he started to rap
When asked he picked up an answer

Here comes the drummer, boy what a wonder
Here comes the drummer, the drummer of love
Here comes the drummer, he's got the drummer
Here comes the drummer, he's got the drummer
Here comes the drummer, he's got the drummer
He's got the drummer
Can't get enough

of your love, mmm, oh yeah, hey now
A drummer for love, uh, oh yeah, hey now
Drumming, mhmm, Drummer
A drummer you love, mmmm Aaow!

Keep the time and solicit the beat!
Try keeping time without tapping your feet
You be the frontman and I'll be your lover
Now let's groove it, ooh, let's groove it undercover...

Here comes the drummer, we got the drummer
Here comes the drummer, we got the drummer
Here comes the drummer, we got the drummer
Here comes the drummer, we got the drummer
Here comes the drummer, we got the drummer
Drummer of love

For your love, yeah
Drummer for love
Drummer you love
Drummer you love
Drummer you love
Drummer you love

Drummer, drummer, drummer, drummer..
