

Ariel Pink, Young Pilot Astray

I woke up on the day you went away
I see it in your face, this day awaits

Young pilot astray
Young pilot astray
Here you are
Young pilot astray
Young pilot astray

I looked inside you, but you left no trace
It's all a dream, you say, it's not too late

Young pilot astray
Young pilot astray
Here you are
Young pilot astray

Ah, I could have loved you

You never told me that you felt this way
And I, without you, I step away

Young pilot astray
Young pilot astray
Here you are
Young pilot astray

Young pilot astray
Here you are
Young pilot astray
Young pilot astray
Young pilot astray
Young pilot astray
