

Arkangel, Evilization

Legions of demons advance
in the shadow of mankind, Infernal hordes of chaos
wage war against earth, Soldiers of doom pour venom on the land.

Final shreds of nature swing on the brink of abyss, while non human life agonizes.
Anthropocentrism is tainted by the suffering of millions.

Admist inferno, I seek salvation to bring an end to your mindless destruction.

United we conquer,
a wind of protest blows to enlighten the blackness of ignorance.
When absolute evil forms, I raise an avenging sword and strike the beast straight into his heart.

To preserve innocence,
to protect the defenseless,
I am striving for an all encompassing golden age.
Where justice and compassion prevail.
In reaction to decadence emerges a shining order, one that ensures freedom not enslavement.
