

Arkells, Oh, The Boss Is Coming

Oh! The boss is coming!
You'd better look busy
They aren't paying you for nothing
There's no time for loving!
In the summer, in the city
There's only room for the sweaty
There's no room for error
So beware, when your ass is on the line
Oh, I've yet to witness
Much forgiveness, in this business

Oh, you'd better not be sitting!
Or punching out early
But be prepared to stay real late
Oh, you know they're not kidding!
When they're talking the talk
It's worse than yelling
I'm punching in
I'm punching out
