

Arkngthand, Awaken Leviathan

Deep ocean, rough water
Strange shadows in the sea
Red horizon, Bad moon
In the murky reefs it sleeps

But still we will sail out
In our hearts you'll find no fear
And if we really have to die this night
Let it be in a seaman's grave right here

Dark ocean, still water
Great shadow on the surface
No horizon, blood red moon
From the murky reefs it came

A sea vessel smashed on the rocks fifty men dragged into the depths
Howls of terror in sight of the beast
After thousand years it has been released

As the storm raged through the skies
Down the fathoms, great Leviathan lies
Awaken giant, from your dreamless sleep
Chorus
As the storm raged through the skies
Down the fathoms, great Leviathan lies
Drag the non believers to the endless deep

In the eye of the storm
Sea beast awakened
Legend reborn
Revenge of the Kraken

Chorus
