Armagedda, Demons

I'm calling you to me Hear my words in yout mind Hear me speak without tunes From the endless worlds of fire

I have found you I'm now the tormentor of your soul Wherever you may hide I will turn light for you to darkness

Ancient spirits Created by evil Follow my voice

I can see destruction from a different side now When the demons have drowned my mind You can't hide in the darkness If you don't belong to it
