

Armageddon, The Juggernaut Divine

a final sign the sky is falling down this world has come undone Armageddon has arrived in the shape of a killing machine destroying you pulling you under its wheels crushing you a sadistic instrument of pain to hunt down our race like animals invincible - eraser of life - truly evil the juggernaut divine a war cry killing the unborn suffocating heat and the stench of burning human meat our culture now destroyed forever as the war machine keeps turning the flames of hate - still burning
