

Armia, Other side

All I'm doing echoes on the other side
All I'm saying matters on the other side
All I'm thinking whispers on the other side
All I'm nothing something on the other side
Your other side
Your other side
When I go I'm going to the other side
When I sleep I'm going to the other side
When I breathe I'm going to the other side
When I sing I'm going to the other side
Your other side
Your other side
Seven in Heaven
Seven rivers only to the other side
Seven kisses only to the other side
Seven verses only to the other side
Seven sevens only to the other side
Your other side
Your other side
