

Armin Van Buuren featuring Justine Suissa, Burn

For each forgotten kiss
For all the memories
For all the times alone
Said, all we had to say
You played your part so well
A modern Romeo
You came on Cupid's wings
And then you flew away
When you touch my face
When you call my name
I'm burned with desire
When you touched my face
When you call my name
I'm burned with desire
But you left me in the rain
For every sleepless night
Forever in your arms
For every hour spent
Lost in the reverie
You broke your promises
No shame and no regrets
You burned the bridges too
An endless mystery

When you touched my face
When you call my name
I'm burned with desire
When you touched my face, so beautiful
When you call my name, my name
I'm burned with desire
But you left me in the rain
When you touched my face
When you call my name
I'm burned with desire
When you touched my face, so beautiful
When you call my name, my name
I'm burned with desire
But you left me in the rain
When you touched my face
When you call my name
I'm burned with desire
When you touched my face, so beautiful
When you call my name, my name
I'm burned with desire
But you left me in the rain
