

Armor For Sleep, Dream To Make-Believe

It's funny how things work out...
the ones we need don't know we're there...
if I were sand and you were oceans...
the moon would be why you're pulled to me...
I wake up and think dreams are real...
I sleep so I don't have to feel...
the truth that you can't ever be...
the one person that won't ever forget me...
I hope that dreams come when I die...
so we can talk, I won't wake up...
I'll ask you how your life worked out...
I'll never know that I'm just dreaming...
I wake up and think dreams are real...
I sleep so I don't have to feel...
the truth that you can't ever be...
the one person that won't ever forget me...
let me sleep some more
