Armor For Sleep

What To Do When You Are Dead

End of a Fraud

i'm leaving again

for the second time around you better believe that this was all just a joke to me and as i look down on them i repeat these words in my head

"they never heard one sound out of my mouth they never heard one sound"

i saw pretty clear

but when i left you all stayed the same now i think i believe that i was never alive in the first place

don't believe that the weather is perfect the day that you die
