

Armor For Sleep, My Town

Street lights look like ribs on my block
I can forget where I am now
Smiling as I pass some parked cars
I can forget where I am at

Run through my town
Scream till I faint
Stumble around
Scare kids away
Worn out I'll be
Asleep on the street
Watch my whole town
Attempt to wake me

Sidewalks lend their backs to my feet
I can forget where I am now
Houses shut their lights as I pass
I can forget where I am at

Run through my town
Scream till I faint
Stumble around
Scare kids away
Worn out I'll be
Asleep on the street
Watch my whole town
Attempt to wake me

This is the end of rotting away
In the backseat
This is the end of keeping it in
They'll all know how I feel

This is the end of rotting away
I know how I feel

Run through my town
Scream till I faint
Stumble around
Scare kids away
Worn out I'll be
Asleep on the street
Watch my whole town
Attempt to wake me

Run through my town
Scream till I faint
Stumble around
Scare kids away
Worn out I'll be
Asleep on the street
Watch my whole town
Attempt to wake me
