

Armor For Sleep, Truth About Heaven

Walk past my grave in the dark tonight
Saw the stone and the note you left for me
To answer your question I just had to leave
I just had to leave

But thats not why im here
I came out here to tell you it rains in heaven all day long
I want to find you so bad
To let you know im miserable up here without you

Found my way back in the dark tonight
Couldn't wake up, not right next to you
I traded forever to just hear you say the sound of my name

But thats not why im here
I came out here to tell you it rains in heaven all day long
I want to find you so bad
To let you know im miserable up here without you

Dont believe that its better
When you leave everything behind
Dont believe that the weather is perfect
The day that you die
Dont believe that the weather is perfect
The day that you die

I came out here to tell you it rains in heaven all day long
I want to find you so bad
To let you know im miserable up here without you

Dont believe that the weather is perfect
The day that you die...
