

Armor For The Broken, Diagram Of A Darkened Heart

We'll dance like the night is endless
(and these days are forever)
Our shadows we've chased to this corner
(have dripped dry tonight)

I don't know how to say this
I think I'm suffocating
I don't know how to say this
I think I'm finally failing

Love is more my job than it is your business
We'll keep this tied up girl
We won't discuss this

This is the diagram
(of a darkened heart)

All I see is white
What is this mess?
Where am i?
what have you done?
