

Armsbendback, Trading In The Silence

So Low, I hate you

Hey, did you think it bothered me
I can honestly agree
That you weren't in love with me
I'm dying

I believe that you aren't ordinary
You're living in a dream
I believe that you've been playing around with my heart
I believe that you aren't ordinary

Now, do you have something to say
Even though we don't agree
All you do is walk away
I'm drowning

I believe that you aren't ordinary
You're living in a dream
I believe that you've been playing around with my heart

I can't think
Of anything but you

I hate you truly this time
