

Army Of Anyone, Ain't Enough

The only thoughts I've had have put me in pools of red If one day I could break loose The only dreams I've had seem locked inside my head If only I could hear you

More than love
is neater this time
Love ain't enough

The only peace or grace is in a cold embrace of some truth and honesty We only hesitate
because our hands must hate If only our hearts broke through

More than love
is neater this time
love ain't enough

So give us
some patience
because our hearts can't teach us So give us
some patience
because our hearts can't lead us

More than love
is neater this time
love ain't enough

More than love
is neater this time
love ain't enough
ain't enough
ain't enough
