

Army Of Anyone, It Doesn't Seem To Matter

I saved a place for you
I saved a place for all of you
I wanna pull you all in
I want you guessin' what the truth can win

Let's all fake happiness
We'll put on a good show
We'll lie through our teeth
We'll kill who tries to cheat
Aye man
Yeah

It doesn't seem to matter
When it's all about you
It doesn't seem to matter
when it's all about you

I'll try to make amends
I'll try to mend all of you
I want to let you all in
I want to live where the truth can win

Let's all fake happiness
We'll put on a good show
With fun in the streets
We'll kill who tries to cheat
Aye man
Yeah

It doesn't seem to matter
When it's all about you
It doesn't seem to matter
When it's all about you

I want to let you all in
I want to live where the truth can win

It doesn't seem to matter
When it's all about you
It doesn't seem to matter
when it's all about you
