

Army Of Emus, The Perfect Dream

Last night I had a perfect dream
It was the best dream ever
We played at a show
Rockin and jammin together
The crows was going insane
Everyone was wild
I looked around and saw this guy
He looked at me and smiled
Just then it hit me like a rock
It took me long enough
Standing there and smiling was Benji
Showing off his stuff
We watched each other all night long
Until I walked off stage
Benji came to hand me something
Some digits on a page

Next thing I knew I heard a scream
It woke me from my dream
That really sucks it was pretend
I didn't get to see the end

Finally I fell asleep again
And I dreamed even more
I was walking through school
When I tripped and fell on the floor
I was lying down there
For a minute or two
Then I heard someone sneeze
So I said "Bless you"
I looked up from the ground
As the sneezer looked at me
My stomach dropped
I was in ecstasy
It was Rhett and he helped me up
I couldn't believe I touched his hand
He actually talked to me
And cutely helped me stand

Next thing I knew I heard a scream
It woke me from my dream
That really sucks it was pretend
I didn't get to see the end

I fell asleep one last time
And had the greatest dream of all
A boy was walking toward me
He was really small
I couldn't help but laugh
When I realized who it was  walked up to me
My heart began to buzz
Then I snapped back to myself
Why was I talking to him
The idiot who ruined my life
I looked past him and grinned
Benji and Rhett were walking over
I couldn't believe my eyes
They beat him up black and blue
Now we're friends for the rest of our lives
