

Arno, Solo Gigolo

I almost lost my head
Of all the things I said
Like I said before
I am just a lonely solo gigolo
At the bars nobody is missing
In my head the mood is smiling

I'll let it flow
Real slow, real slow
Are you with someone else
Or just with yourself
Nothing has changed
By the way
How are the kids today
Don't you worry about me
There is a crack in everything
That's how the light
A new light gets in
You don't need me anymore
It doesn't matter anymore
Like I said before I am just a lonely solo gigolo
In your head the moon is crying

In my heart the sun is shining
Like I said before I am just a lonely solo gigolo
Like I said before I am just a lonely solo gigolo
