

ARO, Shared Something With The Night

All the things i see wasn't good to say to you Shared Something With The Night
The way how the stars collapse over the moon

Livin' for you in my heart
when i look at you
i fall apart

You are so heavy for my soul
My mind is everything i have you the hammer,
... some rest

i am just a silly girl lovin; you when you don;t exists

You are so heavy for my soul
My mind is everything i have
wishfull thinking makes my smile

Shared Something With The Night
The way how the stars collapse over the moon
and the feel is really dark dark

when i look at you
i fall apart
wishfull thinking makes my smile

in my heart
in my heart
in my heart
