

ArrDee, Late Night Driving

Late night drivin', it's 5 A.M. on the M-way
I've been in the booth all night
Givin' my all just so they can press play
Ain't seen Mum in a month and I miss her
But I'm graftin' in the best way
When you've been on your arse so long
This shit hit different, do you comprende?

I might take a flight at the end of the year for the work I put in Turn off my phone for the week, no socials, see how the other side livin'
I couldn't complain 'bout the plate I had but we never did have no puddin'
And now I'm responsible for bringin' in the team and make sure they chillin'
I'm the walkin' talkin' greatness, they ain't got a clue how long I been waitin'
Now I'm here, here to stay, let's see how long I can live in the game
They love you when you're up, when you're down and out, you'll see them change
The feelin' is strange, but what can I say? I got what I wished, can't take it away
Ayy, late night drivin', it's 5 A.M. on the M-way
I've been in the booth all night
Givin' my all just so they can press play
Ain't seen Mum in a month and I miss her
But I'm graftin' in the best way

I've been gettin' bigger, and so has the love, but it don't seem real
The closer I get to the top, the more lonely that I feel
The more that I walk in hot, the more the aroma's givin' me chills
I ain't into talkin' much but I've got more raps than a trap boy deals
The town gets live in the night but I ain't have bread so I yak, then chill
They call me the liveliest guy, the survival and I can't match, that's real
I ain't got the time anymore, they tell me I've changed, I tell 'em I've grown
I walk on the road, I ain't on my own, I still feel alone, I smile and roll
Ayy, late night drivin', it's 5 A.M. on the M-way
