ArrDee, Locker

I got more than enough in my locker Bruv I'm a warrior, I feel like Rocky the moment he got up This some champion shit I just keep on landing I know it ain't just bout all the bangs you hit But I'm still here standing Taking on the whole lot while I'm off my rocker, but...

I got more than enough in my locker Kick me on the ground and I'll bite your foot We don't know bout stop We know bout loss after loss after loss It would turn you soft, turned me to a boss A Survivor - made of fury, glad that it made me wilder Cos the battles they made me wiser Cover my locker in petrol and watch it light up

A product of my environment, watch me walk out the flames Turned my back on the smoke, look close you still the fire in my gaze Carry the torch for the town and used the light to make it out the maze When you're born this hot you feel safe in blaze, burning and I don't feel fazed *bark* Arrdizzle the dog had a taste of the blood, fresh wounds In the game

Now I want it all I can't be tamed, til nuttin but scars remain And I can't refrain from claiming the fame cos look at how far I've came Best wake up and smell my mocha

I'm a soldier Never looked up to an older Bruv I got here off my own bat Paid homage to greats before me Respect - I'm owed that I neglect the throwbacks But the stress it still rolls round me, that smell it just sticks Just like the cigs that I got on my breath, I want all the smoke

I feel colloidal like Khali They ain't got the bottle like ArrDee Who else came in the game, talked their shit Actions backed it like Muhammad Ali? That's what I thought Somebody tell them man to hang up their gloves, cos everybody's bored, plus...
