

Arrested Development, Overachiever (ft. Montsho)

I need you to overstand
That I'm an overachiever
Underestimated all across the land
That I am an overachiever
Lets go
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
An overachiever

A gladiator
That makes gladiators
I'm Ridley Scott
I try to cover all bases like a little league tot
I got More love for Black Madonna's than Rome Italy's got
The only squat you used to doing is diddly squat
I can't hear u talking - there's too much noise
I've been a man for a while - I'm not one of the boys
Not bought nor sold
I am not one of your toys
The more of me the more sparkle like drinking Lacroix
No designer clothes
Chains from Jacob
They replaced shackles on slaves
With jewels & Make up
I don't got the same attractions
I'm not in a gay pub
I don't have to fake owning nice cars to fill my tank up
I'm gold
Just standing on my own
Like an Oscar statue - but ain't no acting though
I got a lot of dead weight
Like carrying a soldier
Trying ignore us
Is like burying a boulder
So
I need you to overstand
That I'm an overachiever
Underestimated all across the land
That I am an overachiever
C'mon
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
An overachiever

I need you to overstand
I'm an overachiever
Underestimated
Undermined non stop
By the nonbelievers
Jealous jokers plotting and chopping the whole regime up
Thinking that they now can become the leader
I sit and planted seeds that years later became trees
They perch at ease and eat from my bird feeder
Either
They are deceived or grieved by perceived threats
Or maybe depression
Either way it is ether
Danger
I call you friend, don't become a stranger
Stranger

Things have happened within this rap game
I am pro gamer
I am pro aimer
Like public enemies logo
Bullets all in my chamber
I may speak conscious
I clearly have conscience
I crave peace, I'm honest
I serve cuz I'm modest
But you should brace yourself
Cuz You don't want it
I can get ill with my drills orthodontist
That I'm an overachiever
But I am
An overachiever
Let's go
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
I believe I'll succeed
Overachievers that is us
