Arrogant Worms

Live Bait

The Mountie Song

When I was a kid I wanted to grow up and be a cop in a province town or county

I thought it would be great if someday I could be a Mountie

I wanted to beat up crooks and make arrests because that's part of the profession

But now I just sit on my horse and tell American tourists the parliament's in session

I really don't look good in red and my stupid hat flies off my head in every parade

I'm young and strong and have no fear but now I'm spending my career in Motorcades

CHORUS

I wanna enforce the law, I wanna wear normal clothes

I don't wanna have to smile for diplomat's home videos

I'm good at workin' real hard, I should have joined the Coast Guard

Oh no the RCMP, is not the life for me

I used to think that a Mountie had to be honest, loyal, humble strong and thrifty

But even though we don't break ranks we get no thanks, they took us off the fifty (dollar bill)

On Sussex Drive in hallowed halls we act like guards in shopping malls, it's such a pain

Like someone's plotting to kill the minister of Sports and Recreation now that's insane

Sometimes I just wanna puke Sgt. Preston of the Yukon

Dudley Dooright's such a jerk

And though he tries with all his heart, my horse couldn't catch a shopping cart

Somedays I hate to go to work
