

Ars Nova, And How Am I To Know

You're not hearing what I say
Oh, no, your mind's on something else
And how am I to know
Oh, yeah, I'll wait around and see
Cause lately have you lost
Keeping has forgotten me
And now you smile and touch my hand
Oh, no, you don't want to understand
And even as I try to speak
Oh, you put your finger to my lips
And at my fingertips
the moment's gone again
Oh, if you just tell me, yes
Let me go
And how am I to know
You're not hearing what I say
Oh, no, your mind's on something else
And how am I to know
Oh, yeah, I'll wait around and see
Cause lately have you lost
Keeping has forgotten me
