

Arshenic, Erased

Erasing all the memories crawling down to the sun...

Sky is falling down on our heads
We're drowning in the clouds
Trying to let it go

Our minds are the prison that holds us down
Oh I'm suffocating
Oh I'm losing air
Oh my head is burning
Is this the end
I see the light behind your eyes

Erasing all the memories crawling down to the sun...

I was never good enough for anybody close to me
Seasons just come and go
And I am still in here

Oh I'm suffocating
Oh I'm losing air
Oh my head is burning
Is this the end?
I found the light behind your eyes

And then you left me alone to die
I'm dying inside
Save me now hold me tight
Die
Then you left me alone to die
