Arsis, ... And The Blind One Came

Lugosi's child bears his namesake Within in this monument we hide from shame, from uncontrolled emotions and untold atrocities Be enlightened lonely angel We're forever with you And the blind one came in the likeness of you And the blind one came to make timeless all that is you Behind the walls of the is monument Your tribute to deceit All time is lost to the innocent Your evil they must repeat