

Art Bears, The Pirate Song

The day that the pirate ship first appears:

Terror in the town

We'll trade in our humanity

For any trinket of treasure, for

Power or pleasure.

If I could give it all away, well I

Would, believe me.

I don't want to make you

Understand or pity me

We're only chained together.

One life is lost and

All the rest remains.

Well if you do not see,

I think you'll never see,

And you will always be afraid

Of understanding Me.

I speak as you would speak,

I see as you would see,

I agree.
