

Art Of Fighting, Less Than An Instant baby put your shoes back on gonna head on down to the floor gonna see the night away dancing a four on four gonna see the morning rise swallow the light of the moon but stay with me and sway a while daylight won't be here anytime soon put a little rhythm into it put a little back in the step anything to put you under a spell cause I know that I'm not there yet I've been a lot of things in my time but I've never been a fool if tonight you're gonna make me one just let me know it soon oh soon don't be afraid of my way

when I say
about you
I need to know
will you go
where I lead?
cause I am weak
in all my time
I've never known
what I need
all across this rainy night there's people going in twos and I could hear your heart calling out beating for something new so baby put your shoes back on
dancing a four
of my way
where I lead?
cause I am weak
yeah, you think that you know what you've got but in less than an instant it's gone
