

Artefact, I Just Wonder

There are days when I can't give a damn
If the sun will shine or there is rain again

And sometimes I don't even care
That I am here and you are there

My vision gets distorted and
I'm finding ways to understand

What's the use of a melody
Played for only you and me?

It's a fantasy
Building up the energy inside of me
Atrocities,
Squeezing out the driving forces left in me

Escape,
Never-never land with me,
Will you please,
Never lose the trust in me...

And I wonder how we came this far
Considering the way things are
I just wonder...
If we can keep this going on.

And I wonder how my life will end
Considering the way it went
I just wonder
I'm just wondering.

There are days when I can't give a damn
If the sun will shine or there is rain again

And sometimes I don't even care
That I am here and you are there

My vision gets distorted and
I'm finding ways to understand

What's the use of a melody
Played for only you and me?

Escape,
Never-never land with me,
Will you please,
Never lose the trust in me...
