

Artefact, Lifespace

As I enter
This long evaded place
It makes me wonder
What has set the chase

Open eyes
With closed eyes
See never seen things
Feel the warmth it brings

"It are the dreams within
They make the fears begin
I search for answers
But no one answers"

"It are the dreams within
It's were the longing begins
For touch, taste and togetherness
I should care less.

Late at night
By your side
Purified
But now

"Here, these evening shades
Make me remember
Our days.
Landscapes, of green and brown and blue
They form my lifespace
My favourite lifespace
With you."
