

Artificial Joy Club, Crawl

We gotta talk, you can't keep it up now
You're eating Kraft Dinner in the eye of a twister
You don't listen to me, I'm your referee
I'm screaming real loud all you hear is a whisper
You can see what you wanna see
You can hear what you wanna hear
Don't look at me for your enemy
I wanna see you
Wake up, sugar, sugar
Come down, smell the coffee
Drink your fears
Taste your problems
You like to sleep alone on a land mine
Your life's not a joke but it's painfully funny
You don't listen to Sal, but she is your real pal
You're waiting for a ride but there's nobody coming
You can freak if you wanna freak
You can fight if you wanna fight
Learn to crawl when you're really weak
I wanna see you
Wake up, sugar, sugar
Come down, smell the coffee
Drink your fears
Taste your problems
Wake up, sugar, sugar
Come down, smell the coffee
Drink your fears
Taste your problems
You can sink if you wanna sink
You can swim if you wanna swim
You can't afford me to be your shrink
I wanna see you
Wake up, sugar, sugar
Come down, smell the coffee
Drink your fears
Taste your problems
Wake up, sugar, sugar
Come down, smell the coffee
Drink your fears
Taste your problems
