Artificial Joy Club, No Shame

I like to dream about the Beatles I also ponder issues like Pete Best I watch my poster fill up with dart holes But I dream too much I wonder if I'll ever be a hero I wonder if I'll measure up to zero But either way I'm really 10 feet tall With no shame at all I'd like to sing as good as Sinatra And I used to think I could be an astronaut I chuck my demo tape at the TV But I think too much I wonder if I'll ever be a hero I wonder if I'll measure up to zero But either way I'm really 10 feet tall With no shame at all No one hears me
