

Artillery, Ain't Giving In

I got no religion, I got no excuse
It's my own decision, I won't take no abuse
I got my own way of living, your fife I despise
Nothing I could be giving, change the look in my eyes
I got no distractions, I got a one track mind
No one ever told me, what I needed to find
If you can't understand me, then I just don't care
Do you want me to be, when there's nothing we share
I ain't giving in to all your goddamn rules
I'm gonna win, I don't listen to fools
I know you wanna judge me, you are all the same
Those you can't understand, always take all the blame
But I just don't buy, 'cause I know the score
Something never change, we've all heard it before
I ain't giving in to all your goddamn rules
I'm gonna win, I don't listen to fools
I'm changing the rules
I got no religion, I got no excuse
It's my own decision, I won't take no abuse
Got my own way of living, your fife I despise
Nothing I could be giving, change the look in my eyes
I ain't giving in to all your goddamn rules
I'm gonna win, I don't listen to fools
I ain't giving in to all your goddamn rules
I'm gonna win, I don't listen to... fools
