

Arwen, Time's Gate

Feel the force
a new time's coming now wars reign and peace dies in this world tormented minds try to destroy the last of human races all is burning in the flames of fire

Tell me why our children cry?
I want them to come back they have gone forever

Why don't the stars shine in the black night?
why when the sunrise comes it's still dark?
where is lost hope?
Send a sign

Time's gate reveal your secret end we'll turn to a better place where the people always smile

Mad minds try to destroy the human race all is burning on the flames of hell I feel the pain, the world is full of tears Where is the end?

Where are our dreams?
dreams of love and peace and who tried to steal our freedom?
I want to escape

Look up to the sky
you can see far away from here so spread your wings and fly far far from the sun and stars
