As Cities Burn, Gates

I've been looking for a new course A different way to say your name, to hear your voice

I've gotta find new chords Well how my new body, it shines

Somehow your blood makes you blind

To our divine, I am all yours

We will wear compassion

We will wear it

And the gates of Hell

Won't stand against it

We will wear compassion

We will wear it

And the gates of Hell

They won't stand, they won't stand against it.

We will wear compassion

We will wear it

And the gates of Hell (and the gates of Hell, they won't stand against it!)

They won't stand against it.

We will wear compassion

We will wear it (we will wear it)

And the gates of Hell (and the gates of Hell, they won't stand against it!)

They won't stand, they won't stand against it
